Your arrival

Your parents will likely book your flight to Beijing for you. In order to organize the airport transfer for you, your parents have to make sure that they inform us about your flight details at least two weeks prior to your arrival in Beijing.

The details we need to know are: Your airline, flight number, the arrival date and time as well as the airport you are coming from.

It is always helpful to let us know your details for your flight back so that we can organize a return transfer for you as well.

Should you travel together with your parents, and therefore do not need an airport transfer, please let us know what time you will be at your accommodation. We need to know the approximate time so that we can inform your group leaders.

Important information!

While booking your flight, please remember that the arrival in Beijing is always on a Sunday and departure on a Saturday!

Unaccompanied minors

If your parents book the service for unaccompanied minors with the airline, please note that we have to be informed of this at least two weeks prior to your arrival in Beijing! As soon as we have the information we will let you know the name of the person who will meet you at the airport. Your parents will then have to give that name to the airline. Please understand that we will not be able to provide this special transfer service if we do not receive the information at least two weeks prior to your arrival.

Important information!

Please note that we only offer unaccompanied minor service if the airline requires it:
Surcharge = US $ 150 one way.

Arrival in Beijing – Transfer

After landing in Beijing (PEK) you will go through customs and take your luggage from the baggage claim. The baggage claim will show your flight number and the city you flew from. As soon as you have found your luggage, please go to the exit which will take you to the arrival hall.

Important information!

You might be asked at customs where you will be staying so please make sure you have your accommodation details with you. Only if you are travelling on STUDENT or BUSINESS VISA show your confirmation of your language course as well.

In the arrival hall, you will meet your group leader or a school representative who will take you to your accommodation. They will either be holding a sign with your name on it or a sign with the name of the school.

Should you not see your leader or the representative immediately, please don't panic! It is very possible that they are a few minutes late due to traffic conditions or other circumstances. Please just wait in the arrival hall and keep on looking for the sign with either your name or the name of the school.

Important information!

If you do not meet your leader or school representative after 15 minutes of waiting, please call the following phone number: 0086 135 010 63928 or 0086 185 1071 2244

Once you have met the leader or school representative you might have to wait a while for other arriving students. The leader or school representative will tell you if this is the case. The transfer then takes place via airport taxi and the leader or school representative will take you from the airport to the residence.

Your luggage

You should check with your airline how much luggage you will be allowed to take with you. Normally you are allowed to take 20 kg plus one piece of hand luggage. When packing, please remember that you will have to carry your suitcase as well.

Important information!

You should always have a luggage label on your suitcase and hand luggage!

In your suitcase you should bring

- ✓ Clothes
- ✓ Umbrella
- ✓ Beach towel
- ✓ Bath towels

In your hand luggage you should bring

- ✓ Your passport or ID card
- ✓ Visa (if necessary)
- ✓ Your flight ticket or E-ticket-number
- ✓ Your voucher with all important information/emergency numbers
- ✓ Important pharmaceuticals (+ confirmation from your doctor to take them on the plane)
- ✓ Health insurance documents
- ✓ Contact details of your parents
- ✓ Pocket money
- ✓ Pillow to sleep on the plane

Important information!

Money or prepaid Visa cards should never be kept in your luggage! Please refer to your bank for further information about the prepaid Visa cards. We recommend applying early for prepaid Visa cards.

Visa and Entry Conditions

You require a visa to travel to China. We ask you to contact your local Chinese embassy or have a look at the homepage of the Chinese government to find out more information.

Accommodation

You will likely find many differences in the way of living in China compared to your home country. Usually the furnishing, the division of buildings and the cleanliness will be different. You will share a room with two or four beds and a bathroom. There is an internet corner, a TV lounge and also a restaurant if you need some time to relax. You will eat your breakfast and dinner at the residence and have your lunch in the school. The residence is only a 15 minute walk from the school.

The address of the residence: Beijing JADE International Youth Hostel
No. 5, Zhide Beixiang, Beiheyuan, Dajie
Dongcheng district, Beijing
Tel.: 0086 10 6525 9966
Fax: 0086 10 6522 6224

Important information!

Please make sure to let us know in advance if you have any food allergies, pet allergies or special food requirements!

You will be asked for a key deposit of 100 RMB on arrival which will be returned on your departure day if you leave your accommodation without any damages!

Please note that we cannot promise that you will be the only student of your nationality in your accommodation or room.

Meals

“When in Rome do as the Romans do“... The Chinese usually have rice or noodle soup, pita bread, soy milk and of course Chinese green tea for breakfast. There will be a buffet for breakfast with Chinese and also European meals. You will eat lunch in the school cafeteria and the dinner in the residence will have typical Chinese food for example rice, different soups, meat dish, vegetable dish, different kinds of pastry etc. When participating in trips the school staff will also offer hot lunch for you.

Pocket money

The question of how much pocket money to take is difficult to answer since the amount depends on age and individual habits. The organized leisure program with excursions and sports activities is already included. Our suggestion is about 120,- EUR pocket money per week. It is best to change money locally since the exchange rate is usually better. You can also take prepaid Visa cards. You should take a bit of cash for the first few days (e.g. to phone home). Please note that for some activities we will use public transport, which is not included in the package. Everyone should therefore buy a travel pass for public transportation.

Important information!

Our suggestion is to take about 150,- US $ pocket money per week.

We always recommend taking a bit more money with you since it is difficult to transfer money from your home country to the destination of your language course.

The School – Sprachcaffe Beijing

The lessons

All teachers are highly fluent Chinese speakers who have academic qualifications as well as foreign language teaching experience. They are very enthusiastic and are always willing to answer any questions you might have.

The lesson plans vary: Most include indispensable grammar and vocabulary learning as well as an emphasis on communicative methods of learning. Role-plays and a lot of active speaking help you to overcome your fear of speaking the new language. The teachers also utilize current affairs topics such as politics, society and culture in the form of newspaper articles, radio broadcasts or TV programs. Our language courses will only be held in Chinese to maximize your immersion in the language.

We offer one type of course for the U20 Program in Beijing:

- Standard course                      4 lessons daily (45 minutes/lesson)

The maximum number of participants per course is 8. On the recommendation of the teacher, a student can be put into a higher or lower level class during the course.

Helpful information

Health care in China

Medical treatment is unfortunately not free in China for foreigners. Should you get sick and need a doctor you will be asked to pay cash. You should therefore take some extra money for emergencies. We highly recommend buying health and travel insurance prior to departure.

Insurance

We recommend taking out health and travel insurance. If you lose your luggage, if damage occurs, or if valuable items are missing, it can be a frustrating experience. A reimbursement without insurance is a time-consuming process that is not always very successful.

Clothes

It is best to take casual clothes with you. We recommend that you also pack a warm pullover, as it occasionally can get cold during the summer. For excursions we recommend a pair of comfortable shoes. Something a little fancier would also be good for special occasions. If you would like to do sport, take your sports clothes and shoes as well.

Phone

The international code for Beijing is 0086 10, plus the phone number. Please check with your parents prior to your departure what your country code is. Public telephones will usually take cards which you can buy in shops and at newspaper stands.

Money

The official currency in China is the Renminbi (RMB), also called Yuan. Your bank can give you the exact exchange rate.

Electricity

The electricity voltage is 220 Volts in China. Since the sockets are not standardized, we recommend you to take a multi-purpose adaptor with you.

Safe

There is no private safe in residence room, only a small safe in residence lobby you can use for your things. A one-time use costs 1 Renminbi.

Time difference

In the summer time Beijing is 7 hours ahead GMT (in the winter 8 hours). Depending on your home country, you will have to change your watch!

Documents

Better safe than sorry! Please make a copy of all your important travel documents. For example: Flight ticket, insurance policy and passport. In the case that you lose important documents you can be helped faster if you have such copies. Please keep the copies separate from the original documents.

Holidays

Please consider that there is no class on public holidays. You will find information about the China's public holidays in our brochure or on our web site.

Applied geography

Beijing

Beijing is the capital of the People's Republic of China and has 17.6 million inhabitants. The city is the political and cultural center of China and has a three thousand year old history. Due to the long history the city has a unique cultural heritage. There's really a lot to see!

The Forbidden City is a symbol of Beijing and of the era of the Emperors. It was built during the Ming dynasty and was the Emperor's residence for 500 years as well as the political centre of China. Entrance to the Forbidden City was forbidden for regular citizens. It was the victim of destruction twice, that is to say it was plundered twice, once during the Manchus' (Qing dynasty) conquest of Beijing in 1664 and once shortly before the Communists' conquest of the city in 1949 when the Kuomintang took the Forbidden City's treasures to Taiwan.

You can visit the Mao-Mausoleum on the Square of Heavenly Peace. Since there's still a big Mao-hype in China it is said that the preserved remains of Mao Zedong have been laid to rest here. It is still unclear whether it is a wax figure or if it is the real corpse of the great Leader. Above all you should be prepared for long waiting times on public holidays.

The Great Wall of China is a symbol of the People's Republic of China and a must-see for everyone visiting the country. It stretches for more than 6700km from the Shanhaiguan Pass on the East Coast to the Jiayuguan Pass in the Gobi desert. The Great Wall was started over 2000 years ago when China was united under Emperor Qin Shihuangdi. As part of the unification process the different parts of the wall which had been erected previously by different and independent kingdoms were connected to form one long wall. The Wall was a bastion to stop the plundering Nomadic tribes. Over 180 million cubic metres of pounded earth were used for the basis of the original wall.

The Square of Heavenly Peace is a square was often used for mass events. It is the centre of Beijing. If you go towards the Forbidden City you find the Tiananmen (Gate of Heavenly Peace) above which there is a painting of Mao.

Excursions

One full-day and two half-day excursions are offered in a two-week language course. If you are staying three weeks, two full-day and three half-day excursions are included in the price. Furthermore there are activities offered in the afternoon or evening for example:

- ✓ The Forbidden City
- ✓ The Great Wall of China
- ✓ Shopping street Wangfujing
- ✓ Movie Night
- ✓ Square of Heavenly Peace
- ✓ Quiz night

Please note that the activities and trips will vary slightly depending on weather conditions and number of students. There are usually-some extra activities offered as well that you can book for a small fee once you are in Beijing.

Supervision

Our teamers supervise the leisure program. Please consider that Sprachcaffe Languages Plus is only responsible for students while supervised during leisure program. We expect you to behave in a respectful way and we are not responsible if you do not respect the rules or act at your own risk.

Return trip

Please make sure to tell your group leaders your most up-to-date flight details a few days before you are going home so that your return transfer can be organized accordingly. On your departure date, your return transfer will pick you up from your accommodation and drop you off in front of your departure terminal.

Important information!

Please note we do not have a check-in-service at the airport!

You will need to go into the terminal and walk to the check-in counter. Which counter you need to go to will be shown on the screens in the terminal. You should check in about 2 hours before your flight departs. After that, please go through security straight away. During the high summer season, this can take a while.

Meals for your return journey

We would like to inform you that you need to cater for yourself on your return journey. The last meal in your accommodation usually will be breakfast. Please make sure you have enough pocket money left on the last day so you can buy some food.

Checklist for your language holiday

- Small present for your hosts (optional)
